Really, tomorrow is fine. I need to shake this jetlag and I will be really busy until mid-November so it really doesn't make any difference. Besides, starting from October 10th all my evenings will be busy with a couple of concerts and the Arab Film Festival.

Any time after 4 p.m. is fine, just let me know, it takes 20 minutes from Montgomery where I get on.

Hi Adrienne,

Yes I'm back and I'm still jetlagged.
What if meet on Tuesday? Can you make it to Berkeley in the evening around 6 PM? I know a couple of nice places where we can sit and talk. If the weather is nice we can go to Jupiter. It's a brewery by BART station on Shattuck Avenue or we can go to Cesar which is 5 blocks farther. That's only a suggestion. I know Oakland would probably be better for you but other than Rockridge (College Avenue) I don't know Oakland that well.

Take care,

Tarek

Hello again!

Tarek:

I will come straight to the point of trying to contact you; the situation with LinguaLinx has become quite deplorable on many levels. To keep it brief and in the interest of professionalism, David has made several sporadic decisions over the past few months that seriously make me wonder about the longevity of the company.

The company moved me here and I have little to no contact or support from them. I am very, very good at what I do and want to work for an organization that values the people within it. In the year that I have been with them I have been quite successful at building lucrative relationships for the company.

Professionally, I do not know anyone here. I want to leave and I ask you if you can offer me assistance at all. If not, will you refer me to someone that could assist me? David, has a strange policy about loyalty, although he is not loyal to his employees, if he got wind at all that I was looking he would terminate me immediately. Mostly, I am concerned about reaching out to another LSP and it turn out that it be someone he knows.

Thom and I have settled in our loft in Oakland and absolutely love it; working for David has nearly drained me and I know that there is something great out there for me.

Your utmost confidentiality is greatly appreciated regarding this matter and I cannot adequately express how deeply I would appreciate any assistance at all.

Sincerely,

Adrienne

Sounds great, I am at 22 Battery, Suite 610, (Corner of Market St.) it is the brick building that has the Peets on the first floor and any time is fine.

Hey!

I would love to see your office and YOU are my first priority. So, if it works for you, I can come there this afternoon. I could probably be there by around 1:30 or 2. I know we have a lot to figure out and since our concert is in SF, Tarek could meet us there later. He is really, really busy, though so doesn't have a lot of time for us. Let me know at what point we can talk and scheme today. If it needs to be later, that is very fine. Let me know.

Hello Natalie:

You beat me to it, first on my agenda was to contact you this morning! Thank you very much for a great evening and for braving East Oakland, I very much appreciated the lift.

There are many things that I would like to discuss with you, mainly about day to day operations. Also, if it is possible, are you able to drop by the Financial District any time soon? My schedule is very flexible and the more conversation we can have regarding this matter, the better.

I am both on a local and remote server here in the office so I am going to keep this brief.

You may contact me any time.

Sincerely,

Adrienne

Good Morning, Adrienne!

We just wanted to touch-down with you...

I am so glad that I had a chance to meet you last night. We are very excited about the possibility of working with you. I know there is a fair amount to think about and discuss, but we want you as soon as you can break away.

As far as we're concerned, it is a done deal, but do what you need to do. I really want to have a contract written up, for us, but also for you. I will look into this today. I also wanted to let you know that tonight, Tarek and I will be at a concert from 7:30 to whenever, but we are here for you if anything comes up at any other time.

We'll give you some breathing room today, but we will talk again soon.
